CofC Meeting Attended by 22 Members

The opening fall meeting of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce took place at Lorenz Smart Country House, Monday, Sept. 11. Dinner was served at 7:30.

Full membership in the Chamber still remains undetermined as many persons are still to be contacted.

At present the Retail Committee is the Chamber's only active committee, although an Industrial Committee concerned with Antioch industries has been proposed.

President Stanley Toton also discussed a membership drive with the group. Out of 188 potential members, 45 are now on the Chamber's rolls.

A membership committee, headed by Bernard Osmond of Antioch, was established to spearhead the drive for new members. In fact, during the course of the Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting, Mr. Osmond, via the telephone, enlisted several new members.

A treasurer's report was read by John Horan, following a discussion concerned with the Chamber of Commerce decals and the present condition of the Chamber's Christmas decorations.

A gift of a new lighter was awarded Mrs. Bette Meyer, a former president, for her past industrious efforts and meritorious work for the Chamber by President Toton.

Russell Keulman was appointed a representative committee chairman to "sit-in" at village board meetings by the Chamber. A By-Laws Committee including George Wagner, George Carlson, Hillard Tobieske, Marian Pechousek and Roy August was also established to revise the present by-laws of the Chamber.

President Toton adjourned the 22 members present at 10:20 p.m. from the Chamber's first Fall meeting since April.

The weather, with its recent downpour of rain in the Antioch area, is signaling its change of temperament in order to prepare us for the coming season of sniffing cold and wet feet.

The University of Missouri's strong program in conservation, in which he plans to major, was one of the determining factors in Truelsen's choice from the scholarships extended to him.

Wilmot Fire Ruins Horse Farm Sheds

A raging fire, Sept. 7, at the Cocklan Horse Farm near Wilmot resulted in the loss of 1 tool and 2 horse sheds. The Wilmot Fire Dept. estimated $1,500 in damage.

Sparks from a pile of burning rubbish drifted to a manure pile a few feet away to cause the fire, which spread to the sheds nearby. After being called by Mrs. Cocklan, the Wilmot and Silver Lake Fire Depts. arrived in 10 minutes to extinguish the roaring blaze. The crews returned several times during the day to put down more water on the still smoldering embers.

Mrs. Cocklan estimated that 300 people came to the scene, many running into the burning sheds to save equipment.

Art Group Schedules "Dial M for Murder"

The Palette, Masque & Lyre group, holding their meeting Sept. 6, decided to plan on doing "Dial M for Murder" sometime this Fall. The weekly turgid and melodramatic mystery play, exhibiting its deftly subtle murder plot, is to be directed by James Corrigan.

The problem facing the group, stated Corrigan, is finding enough responsible actors to take the necessary parts. Tryouts are presently being held for the casting of the play.

Civil Defense Siren To Alert Community

At a recent meeting of Civil Defense Directors in Lake County it was decided to put in practice another series of blowing the siren in the various villages as an alert signal so that the public will get well acquainted with the idea.

The Antioch siren was blown last Saturday at 10 a.m. and will continue to be blown on the following schedule: Sept. 23, Oct. 14 and 28, Nov. 11 and 25, Dec. 9 and 23.

Antioch Industries Boom Plans Expand in Growth

The H & S Manufacturing Co. of Waukegan, recently acquired property for their proposed plant here in Antioch, plans to build a 12,500 square foot building on Bartlett St.

Mr. Wallace Sjoström of the Waukegan plant reported that at least 6 to 10 employees would hold down the first shift duties of the plant here. He also stated that the company plans to add a second shift in the future.

Mr. John Conville, Antioch architect, whose plans are seen below, is designing the new plant site. He said that the building would have an extra-heavy concrete floor and that the entire building would be made of concrete block and brick. The building, he added further, would be complemented with steel roofdecks and would be completely fireproof.

The estimated cost of the building on the 250 x 250 ft. lot has been fixed between $70,000 and $80,000.

The H & S Manufacturing Co. is the maker of screws, special fasteners and shoulder rivets.

The Quaker-Stretcher Industries plant on Sequoit Acres has almost been completed for overall use, with the exception of the office area where construction workers are still laboring.

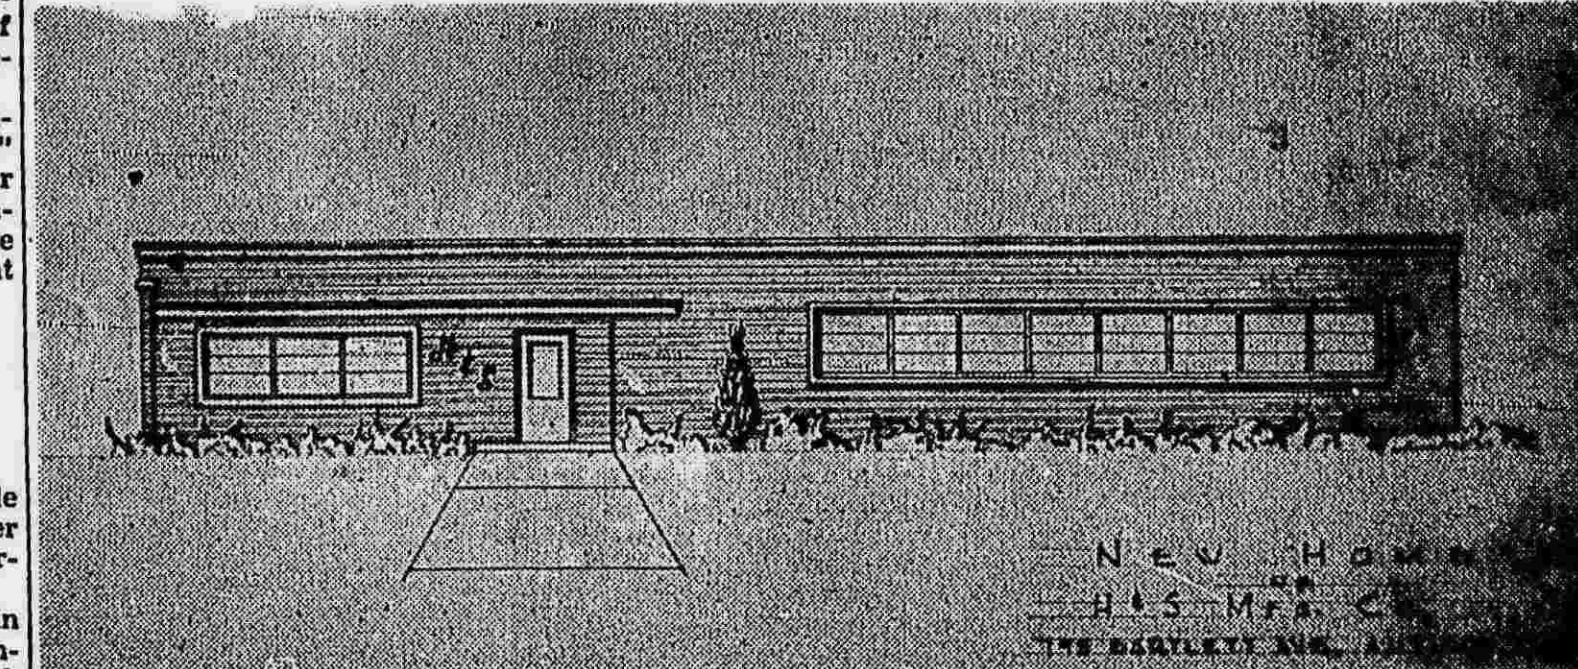

Mr. Gilbert Petzke, Works Manager of the Quaker-Stretcher Industries plant here, stated that close to 125 persons were already hard at work. Mr. Petzke added that the planned second shift at the plant would eventually bring up the total number of employees to 300.

The Quaker Industries plant in Kenosha presently employs about 300 persons.

The plant itself is made of concrete, steel and aluminum, with the office area being constructed of brick. There is glazed tile in all the washrooms and the entire building is fireproof. The roof is made of metal deck with 1½ in. fiber glass insulation. Along with installing the very latest in modern equipment, a sprinkler system has been added. There are 4 acres under roof in an overall area of 179,800 sq. ft. The immensity of the ceilings required 5,000 gals. of paint to be sprayed.

Mr. Petzke estimated the cost involved to be over a million dollars.

The Quaker-Stretcher Industries are makers of snack tables, picnic tables and benches, fiber glass accessories, and pole and sectional shelving.

SHOWN ABOVE is the owner's plans of the new H & S building scheduled to be built in Antioch. The sketch exhibits the facade of the west elevation, of the new office and factory building. Bidding, it has been requested, is by invitation only.

Three resident Chicagoans died violently here Monday, Sept. 11, about 6:10 a.m. when their heavy auto, traveling at high speed, tore off the State Line Road, 1 mile east of Deep Lake Road, and smashed into a tree. The accelerated plunge of the car as it hit the stationary object caused it to be literally torn in half.

The front of the car, going about 26 feet further than the rear end, burned as it hit a telephone pole.

James Gattis, 31, 4223 W. Adams, the driver was miraculously thrown free of the car, only to die minutes later when being taken to the hospital in an ambulance.

The other victims, Rose P. Steward, 25, and John Lewis Leman, 30, died instantly in the back seat of the car. The Antioch Rescue Squad and Lake County Deputies labored for over an hour to free the two from the jagged debris of the rear end of the auto.

The car, officers estimated, went 188 feet before slamming into the tree.

A jury was sworn in to investigate the accident by Coroner Robert Babcox in Antioch.

The bodies of the three were removed from the scene of the accident and taken to the Strang Funeral Home.

Gattis, a wire machinist, was employed by the Milton Wire Company in Brookfield, Ill. At his death, he left his wife, Angelina, and three daughters. Services will be arranged for him in Chicago.

Miss Steward of Pryorsburg, Ky., will be removed for burial there.

Leman, whose only relative surviving him is Mrs. Robert Petty of Holy Hill, Fla., will be removed for a Tennessee burial, the state in which he was born.

Resident's Son Suffers Death

Earl English, Jr., 41, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl English of Felter's Subdivision, Antioch, was found dead by his wife, Lorraine, in Mount Prospect, Ill., Saturday, Sept. 10.

Mrs. English found her husband lying next to an electric light post in their front yard which he had been repairing with an electric drill.

The drill, lying next to English, gave his wife a shock when she pulled it away from him.

English, a specialist in the truck division of International Harvester Co., had attempted to fix the drill after it had been broken, his wife stated.

Oxygen and artificial respiration were used in a 45-minute effort to revive him by a police rescue squad; however they failed to do so. An investigation into whether anything other than an electric shock caused the death would be performed, police said.

Besides his parents and wife, English is survived by his daughter, Marilyn, a student at the University of Wisconsin.

Services were held Wednesday, Sept. 13, at the Mee and Rame Funeral Home, located at Irving Park and Pulaski Rd., in Chicago.

A DICTATOR'S REAL FEAR

When a barrel-organ dictator such as Nikita Khrushchev, under whose chubby thumb 100 million people are pressed, threatens international war, he is threatening himself.

Khrushchev has arrayed a powerful military force before the world, hoping against hope that this vision of might would cause peaceful nations to enter his barbed-wire empire in desperate fear. It has not worked out that way.

The bulwark of his economic army, his civilian workers, are escaping him by the thousands. Even his supposedly loyal police and soldiers are deserting. He is learning the hard way that to make war on other countries today is to make war on one's own people. He has also learned that by permitting his red-block countries to taste a few morsels of freedom he has increased their appetite for more.

Fearful of this naturally human reaction, Khrushchev has put back the wall of separation, the fence of isolation to keep his "people's front" from disintegrating. However, it is too late to curb the seething resentment, the hatred and disgust from flashing throughout his domain.

He is beginning to realize that not only must he face a determined and dedicated western front of nations, but also the constant anger of his own peoples. He knows now, that in the event of war, he would command ghost armies made up of little red flags upon a bulletin board. The same thing happened to a man called Adolf Hitler.

Like all power-mad dictators, Khrushchev fears the crumbling of his captive fortress from within. From viewing the events of the past few months, it is not an unlikely occurrence. The bricks of his impenetrable wall have already begun to fall.

New Word for Flesh Dealers

In recent years a great influx of supposedly "arty" films, plays, magazines and books has been foisted upon the publicity-pressed public of this country. What we are speaking of in this instance is, of course, the purely lewd and sometimes downright pornographic material which is passed off for public consumption under the smugged and tainted banner of Art.

Imported films such as the highly publicized "La Dolce Vita," portrays Italian decadents in all phases of corrupt living, including indecent exposure in obviously obscene photographic shots. Henry Miller, author of the notorious "Tropic of Capricorn" and the "Tropic of Cancer" (advertised in some bookstores as "the book they are trying to ban") reaps a huge percentage on his brainless efforts by merely writing filthy sex books. Once respectable magazines have now subverted the quality of their endeavors by emblazoning a distorted picture of sex, appealing to America's youth for purchasing power and getting it! Plays, endorsed by critics and writers who make their living by peddling flesh themselves, are hits today if they present a "different and unusual sex approach."

You might ask why doesn't our society rise up in indignant protest? Why isn't something done about it? Or aren't there any censors to question the worth of such drivel?

To begin with, the old word of excuse, Art, is no longer a feasible explanation for the "flesh-dealers." Too many courts in the land have been able to discern what is and what is not art (and so too has any ordinary man with common sense).

So it becomes necessary for the flesh dealer to use another excuse to vindicate his sordid productions. And that word is morality. "La Dolce Vita" is called moral because it supposedly teaches a lesson, you see. The books of Henry Miller, which any bookdealer of integrity would automatically discard, are also called moral. They too, are supposed to teach a lesson. Magazines and plays also parade under the word, thinking to appease the more knowing and intelligent portions of their audience. Religious groups are strapped by the word. Social and governmental agencies find little protest with the word itself.

The word moral, as defined in any dictionary, means good in character or conduct. None of the above-mentioned would correspond to that definition regardless of the supposed lesson imparted.

If continued use of the word in advertising the products of demoralized and unstable minds is not checked and defined by persons of authority, it will, undoubtedly, suffer the fate of many words in our language. The words moral or morality will become words without meaning, words thrown away with only transitory use in the middle of the Twentieth Century.

Girl Scout Heads Meet Here, Plan Area Fund Drive

The Lakeview Girl Scout Fund Drive area representatives met Friday morning, Sept. 8, at Cy's Restaurant, Antioch, with Mrs. Dale Lancaster, Libertyville, Council Fund Drive Chairman to complete plans for the Antioch-Lake Villa Girl Scout Area Independent Fund Drive. Those who attended—the meeting were Mrs. Jean Homan, Antioch, a major for the Fund Drive; Mrs. C. T. Queen, Antioch, Family-to-family Committee Chairman; Mrs. Everett Staniford, Assistant Fund Drive Lake Villa area, Mrs. Raymond Claffy, Assistant Neighborhood Chairman and a major in the Lake Villa area.

Effective last January first, the Girl Scout Councils of Libertyville, Lakeside, Waukegan-North Chicago and the lone troops of Zion and Winthrop Harbor joined hands to form an area council to be known as Lakeview. The advantages of the new area council are: the economy of having one office, one central point for bookkeeping; the advantage of having professionally trained staff guidance for all in our new area; an upgrading of all services and more constructive programming; an accelerated camping program available to more girls and above all, the vital link in the Scouting chain. The leader will have more and better resources at her command in the way of training, a troop consultant and a professional staff worked to advise her. The real advantages will be to Girl Scouts, and Girl-Scouts-to-be.

The newly formed Lakeview Council includes geographical territory not covered by the North Lake County Community Chest. In the areas not covered by the Chest, a Fund Drive is necessary to raise the proportionate share of money that will be needed to carry the Girl Scout Program into that area. The money received from the Fund Drive and the Chest is Girl Scout money and it will not be used for anything other than to provide real Girl Scouting for the total area of the Lakeview Council. Areas included in the Independent Girl Scout Fund Drive this month are: Antioch-Lake Villa, Fox Lake area, Round Lake area, Grayslake and Libertyville area.

The goal set for the Independent Fund Drive is $12,000. In Lakeview Council there are over 4,000 registered girls and 1035 registered adults. The aim is to make Scouting available to all girls from 7-17 years old within the Lakeview Council. The dates to remember for the fund are: Industrial Drive, Sept. 8-15; Independent Merchants, professionals, and Family-to-family Drive, Sept. 23-30.

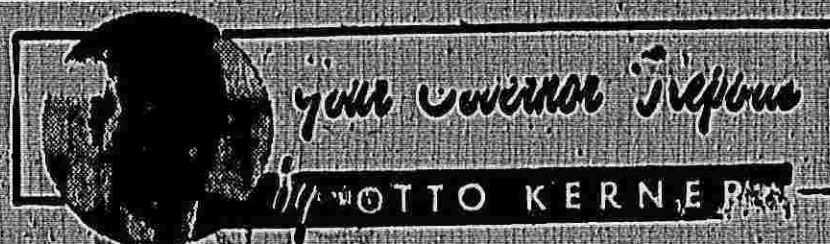

The Girl Scout Independent Fund Drive training dates for volunteer majors, captains and solicitors to remember are: Antioch, Thursday, Sept. 14, 9:30-11 a.m., Scout House; Grayslake, Thursday, Sept. 14, 1-2:30 p.m., Grayslake Savings & Loan Bank, 202 Center St.; Fox Lake, Friday, Sept. 15, 9:30-11 a.m., United Church of Christ; Libertyville, Friday, Sept. 15, 1-2:30 p.m., 1st Lake County Nat'l Bank.

To formulate plans for the economic development of the State of Illinois.

These words comprise the first paragraph in the act establishing the Board of Economic Development enacted by the 72nd General Assembly. These are broad powers.

But this board will do more than formulate plans—it will help communities in forming their own plans for any progressive development which the board and its executive director believe economically beneficial. Space does not permit an enumeration of such a variety of projects that fall under this category but might include such developments as a new park district, a new lake and recreation area, a new factory or housing project.

The board maintains offices in Springfield, Chicago and Herrin. The governor is chairman of the board and its members are the directors of the Department of Aeronautics, Agriculture, Conservation, Insurance, Labor, Mines and Minerals, Public Works and Buildings and Revenue. Victor de Grazia is the executive director. I not only invite, but urge civic and community leaders to contact Mr. DeGrazia who will be glad to help in initiating or helping conclude plans for any type of development for a community.

The services of this agency are for the use of all people in the state. The board can be most helpful to the Illinois community, small or large, which needs industry to bolster its economy. Not only can Mr. de Grazia help communities in efforts to obtain industry, but can provide technical advice on what type of industry best suits their needs.

The agency has completed surveys in many communities, a program which will be accelerated in the weeks to come. These surveys are comprehensive and contain all pertinent information needed by a firm planning to establish or expand its operations in Illinois. The agency's effectiveness will be increased manifold when other communities realize its potential and seek help.

Next week I will report on some of the attractions a community needs to obtain industry, and the financial help available in making plans for economic development.

Letters to the Editor:

Before it is too Late

The teen age delinquent problem has come to Channel Lake and unless the police and teenager's parents take some action, this problem could very likely be ended in tragedy.

It began some time ago to follow the all-too-familiar pattern of teenage delinquents that we read so much about . . . loitering in groups . . . out of doors later than the hour allowed by the curfew . . . breaking bottles on the roadway . . . defacing road signs . . . smashing melons against buildings . . . damaging boats, and a number of other offenses usually laughed off by the parents with "boys will be boys."

Then came the next step . . . stealing small amounts of money, . . . theft of an outboard motor . . . siphoning gasoline from parked cars . . . peering through windows . . . prowling the neighborhood late at night.

Now they have reached stage three. They gained access to a home by crossing a garage roof, forced open a window, and made off with a sum of money and in the process they used matches for illumination which could have resulted in a serious fire. One woman tells of someone tampering with her front door while she stood inside waiting with a loaded gun. Another tells of closing a window on the fingers of one trying to climb into her home. Another tells of small burglaries . . . attempts to open doors, suspicious persons in their backyards at night. All of this has made people afraid to go outside after dark, even on their own property.

The next phase calls for breaking and entering to obtain more and larger sums of money . . . more thefts . . . stealing cars . . . then armed robbery and senseless beatings. All following the pattern that we read about almost daily in the press.

If these young delinquents will only read about others and think what might have happened if that door they tampered with had opened. If their parents will only consider the consequences had their child entered that open window.

If the police will break up this after curfew loitering and prowling, then a major tragedy may be averted BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE!

He'll Drink Anything

The tiny little wife dragged her drinking husband into court and demanded a divorce instantly. Trying to pacify her, the judge asked if her husband ever tried Alcoholics Anonymous.

The frail woman dabbed at her eyes and said, "I guess so, your honor. He'll drink anything."

Lindenhurst News

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau
Elliot 6-5449

The Lindenhurst Woman's Club will meet Thursday evening, Sept. 14, in the new Civic Center on Old Elm Road at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Motto, of the Antioch Travel Agency is trying to obtain a film entitled "Holiday in Hawaii" to be shown at the meeting. Everyone is Hawaii conscious, since the Luau is coming up the 30th.

Members are asked to bring their rummage and coat hangers to the meeting. Rummage will be sorted and set up for the meeting. The annual Rummage Sale will be Saturday, Sept. 16, from 9 to 5 p.m. Anyone wanting to donate rummage, may call Bernice Bernau at Elliot 6-5449 for pick-up.

The Lindenhurst Civic Center will be opened Saturday evening with a dedication dance starting at 8:30 p.m. Guest speaker will be County Judge Minard E. Hulse. Father David Lynch of Prince of Peace Parish and the Rev. Lawrence Bouldin of the Evangelical United Brethren will also participate.

Everyone is invited to attend so that they may view for themselves the work that many of the men of the village have accomplished. Members of the Men's Club have been out all week selling tickets to the affair.

If you are new to the community, this will be a wonderful opportunity for you to meet your neighbors. If you are an "old timer," come on out and renew your acquaintances.

Barry (Bud) Kleban, 57 Longmeadow Drive, underwent surgery last Thursday at the Edgewater Hospital. He had a very serious ear operation, in order that he may regain his hearing in one ear. Bud is secretary of the Lindenhurst Men's Club.

Mrs. Bernard (Jean) Vitek, 1917 East Hazelwood Drive, gave a going away coffee-klatch for Mrs. John (Cele) Mulvihill of Hazelwood Drive and Mrs. Jim (Lil) Mumbauer of Maplewood Drive, last Monday. The Mulvihills are moving to Waukegan in about three weeks, and the Mumbauers moved to Evanston Saturday.

Cele received a pop-up toaster from the women and Lil, a whistling teakettle. Cele also received a TV lamp from the children she had baby-sat for. The ladies who attended the party were Mesdames Blanche Hamf, Dorothy Golden, Bridle Gibbons, Ruth Anne Jansky, and Peggy Bresserman. Not able to attend but contributing towards the gifts were Lorraine Grant and Shirley Heider.

Dorothy Golden of Elmwood Drive surprised her husband, Marty, with a party Sept. 3 to celebrate his birthday. Thirty-two relatives from Joliet, Roseland, Chicago and Schiller Park sat down to dinner.

Cub Scouts Den 1, Pack 84, had a Fun Fair recently in the Kleffner back yard on Beck Road. The boys sold popcorn, Kool-Ade and candy. They staged a puppet show, had ring toss games, button toss, fish pond and a fishing game.

The Scouts who planned the affair were Ricky LaChance, Jim Gawronski, Johnny Kleffner, Bob Hunt and Billy Flanagan. Mrs. Ted Flanagan is den mother. Helping her was Mrs. Clarence Kleffner. Jim Shore helped the youngsters to set up their games and later clean up.

Last Saturday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan took all the Scouts to the County Stadium in Milwaukee to see the Milwaukee Braves beat the Pittsburgh Pirates. The score was 4 to 3. They sat in the lower reserved grand stand. The profit from the fun fair and their dues enabled them to have the outing.

The Dodgers held their picnic at Cedar Lake Park Sept. 2. Don Sherwood's parents donated ice cream, ice and a cooler and the use of the park and its facilities to the team. The boys enjoyed swimming, playing games and filling up on hot dogs, potato salad and Pepsi.

John Springer was voted by the boys as being the best sportsman. A trophy is going to be awarded to him for best sportsmanship. Ricky Bonovitz will also receive a trophy for having the highest batting average.

John Springer is manager of the Dodgers. Ed Bonovitz is donating the trophies.

Mr. and Mrs. John Springer of 1920 East Fairfield Road celebrated their 14th wedding anniversary Sept. 6, by going to Lou Prenger's for supper and Diamond's for dancing the Saturday before, with two other couples John works with.

Mrs. Springer is a teacher at Prince of Peace School.

Mrs. Babe Standford, 1902 Fairfield Road, is leader of the Girl Scouts in Lindenhurst. She is in need of a secretary-treasurer and a committee mother. Call her at El. 6-7462 if you are able to be of service.

Girls in fourth through seventh grade are invited to join the Girl Scouts. If you wish to join call Mrs. Standford as soon as possible. Meetings will start in about two weeks and will be held in the new civic center. Time and day will be announced later.

Room mothers are needed at the Lake Villa Central School and the B. J. Hooper School. Especially needed right now are fifth through eighth grade room mothers. Call Mrs. Swanson, El. 6-7461 or Mrs. Standford, El. 6-7462, if you wish to help.

Room mothers just call four or five other mothers and ask for a donation of cookies, cake or candy whenever the room has a party and then they help the teacher set it up and later clean up. Once a year they serve at a PTA meeting and perhaps go on a picnic with the class at the end of the school year. Your help will be greatly appreciated, and it doesn't involve a lot of time. It also helps you get acquainted with the children your child attends school with.

The High School of Religion classes opened Monday evening at Prince of Peace School. Classes are held every Monday evening at 7:30 for all high school students attending a public high school.

Catechism classes for children attending the public grammar schools will start next Sunday, Sept. 17, after the 9 o'clock Mass, and will be held each Sunday thereafter during the school term.

Parents are reminded that it is their responsibility to see that their children attend these instruction classes.

Pot luck supper is being planned for the members of the Prince of Peace Parish on Sunday, Oct. 8. The Cubs, Lake Villa Township baseball champions, held their picnic Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gawronski, 2418 S. Highland (formerly Thornwood Dr.).

Tony Romano, manager, and Ted Flanagan, coach, were in charge of the affair. Dick Slavik was the "most valuable player" on the team. Garry Fee was the batting champion and Dick Schneider, co-pitching champion. They all received trophies. All the boys who played on the winning team are to receive a trophy, also.

They all enjoyed a cook-out of hot dogs, potato chips and soda.

The combined PTA of the Lake Villa Consolidated School and the B. J. Hooper school will meet Monday evening, Sept. 18, at the Lake Villa Central School at 8 p.m. in the auditorium.

Melvin Colbert, superintendent, will introduce the staff and faculty. Mrs. Robert (Elaine) Murawski, president, will introduce the PTA officers and chairmen.

Mrs. Pat Helwig is membership chairman and she hopes that everyone will join this year to set a new record. Parents may sign up at the meeting Monday evening, or send their dues with their child when a notice is sent home.

Mrs. James Alfredson is vice-president; Miss Esther Eichstadt, secretary; Mrs. Earl Fager, treasurer; and Mrs. Frank Grenus, corresponding secretary.

Boy Scout Troop 88 of Venetian Village will present the colors.

A happy birthday to Lee Ann Wright of 2311 East Deerpath. She celebrated her sixth birthday Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wright, her new little brother, Guy Scott and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Maronic of Hammond. Mr. Wright is president of the Lindenhurst Men's Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson, 2416 East Highland (formerly Thornwood Drive) are newcomers to the village but not to the country. They moved here two weeks ago from Fox Lake Hills, and before that they had a dairy farm in Spring Grove. They have two children, Linda, 13, an 8th grader at the Lake Villa Grade School, and Don, 10, in 5th grade at Hooper. Don attended the Lindenhurst Junior Police club meeting last week at the Civic Center. He enjoyed the movies and clown and refreshments.

Carl works for the International Cash Register in Spring Grove. They are buying the "Catalina" style ranch home and have been busy doing their own decorating. We are happy to welcome them to the community.

Sympathy is expressed to the family on the loss of Carl's uncle, Fred Strahan of Wadsworth Road in Wadsworth.

Mrs. Ed Bonovitz, secretary-treasurer of Brownie Troop 60 in Lindenhurst notified the Brownies that the troop will start meeting at the new Civic Center starting Sept. 28, from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Meeting day will be changed from Wednesday to Thursday.

There are openings in the troop for new members. Any girl desiring to become a Brownie may call Mrs. Bonovitz, El. 6-3531 or Mrs. Robert Bucsas, co-leader, El. 6-7371. Mrs. Henry Page is leader of the troop.

Mrs. Pearl LaBarbera, 103 North Whiteoak Drive cut her finger while washing dishes when a glass dish broke. She had to have four stitches when she was taken to Dr. Laurich by a neighbor.

Miss Georgiann Rezman of Normandy Drive in Venetian Village drove to Adrian, Mich., with her fiancé George Bradford last weekend to visit with his parents, Mr.

and Mrs. William Bradford. While there Georgiann was guest of honor at a wedding shower. She received many lovely gifts including an electric blanket with dual controls. Miss Rezman will be a bride Oct. 22.

They left here Aug. 20 and stopped at Galena, Ill., where they toured President U. S. Grant's home. They visited with Hubert's sister, Mrs. Ollie Crow, in Fort Morgan, Colo., for two days. Receive Safety Advice

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau

The Lindenhurst Junior Police will meet Tuesday, Sept. 19, at the B. J. Hooper School on Sand Lake Road, at 7 p.m. Members are reminded to return their subscription books that night.

Ned Peterson and Donald DISIvestro were the winners in the junior division, when they held their bicycle race at the Sept. 8 meeting, in Lindenhurst. John Zanzola was the winner in the senior division.

Ron Coles warned the boys that they are going to be ticketed and brought to court and made to pay a fine if they don't have lights and reflectors on their bikes. He told them the dangers of riding on the roads in the dark. Parents should see to it that their child's bicycle is properly equipped, and that the child knows the rules of the road. After a child gets hit by an automobile it's too late to take precautions. Only about six at the race, out of approximately 45, were properly equipped.

The boys were told that they must have a statement written by their parents giving them permission to go fishing, and then have it signed by Warren Frontzak, Chief of Police, before they can go fishing. They were told no hunting is allowed.

Gary Van Brunt of Lake Villa, gave a very interesting talk about snakes that he collected and displayed. Preserved snakes were the California king, Western garter, milk, common two-lined skink, ring neck, new born massasauga, sharp tall, green spotted night and gopher snake. He had two live snakes that he showed the boys, also. He held a plain garter snake in his hands and a king snake wrapped itself around a hooked stick used to catch snakes. The boys were fascinated by Gary's talk, and collection.

Ron Coles warned the boys to stay away from construction and to keep other children off, also.

When may a citizen be lawfully arrested?

Arrests may be made with or without a warrant of arrest. In Illinois, a policeman has the right to arrest without a warrant any person who attempts a crime in his presence, or any persons who the policeman has reasonable grounds to believe he committed a crime. A person not a policeman, that is, any other citizens, may lawfully arrest without a warrant only if the crime is committed in his presence. These arrests are lawful even though the person arrested is entirely innocent.

Arrests With Warrant
If the policeman has an arrest warrant, he may lawfully arrest any person who is named in it. An arrest warrant is an order issued by a judge, a justice of the peace or a police magistrate for the arrest of a certain person. It is issued when someone files a complaint accusing another of a criminal act. The arresting officer, a policeman, constable or deputy is required to have the warrant with him when he makes the arrest and to allow the person arrested to read it. The warrant should describe the person accurately, and contain a statement of the specific charge for which the arrest is made.

Do Not Resist Arrest
It is unwise to offer any resistance to an arrest, because it is a crime to resist a lawful arrest.

"Booking"
Once the arrest has been made, and the person is taken to the police station, the law requires that he be "booked" within a reasonable period of time. "Booking" is the entry of a specific charge against the person in what is called the "police blotter" or "arrest book."

The police may lawfully hold the person for several hours or perhaps overnight without booking. Should the detention run beyond reasonable time without booking, the person may obtain freedom by means of a writ of habeas corpus.

A lawyer procures the writ from a judge, ordering the police to produce the person in open court and there either charge him with a specific crime or release him. He may not be held incommunicado. In any case it is proper and customary for the person to ask for permission to telephone his lawyer or someone who can get a lawyer for him.

May Apply for Bail
Once booked, the person has the right to apply for and post bail so that he may be released from police custody pending the trial unless the crime for which he is booked is a very serious crime. Bail is security posted to assure that the person arrested and booked will come to court on the day set for his trial. If the person fails to appear in court on the day of trial, he will forfeit his bail security and a warrant will be issued for his arrest.

While the person arrested is in the custody of the police, he may not lawfully be forced to make any statement on any subject. He has a full legal right to remain silent throughout, and to refuse to speak, to answer questions, or to sign papers. He has the right to refuse to take a "balloon test" (to determine intoxication) or any other similar tests.

If he is physically forced to give incriminating information, he can prevent it from being used against him at his trial.

In many cases it is prudent for an arrested person to refuse to give any information which might in any manner be used against him, until he has talked with his lawyer, even though he is completely innocent of the crime charged. Of course, he should not withhold information that may lead to the apprehension of the guilty party.

Rights of the Defendant
When the person is booked and is brought to court, he has become a defendant to a criminal charge. He has a right to be represented by competent counsel of his own choice.

Should he be unable to pay for a lawyer's services, he may take a "pauper's oath" affirming his poverty, and then the court will appoint a lawyer to defend him if the case is at all serious. He is given a copy of the papers containing the formal charge against him. He is free to plead guilty or not guilty to the charge, and if he pleads not guilty the State must come forward with its proof.

The lawyer will take the case and defend him vigorously whether he be guilty or innocent, because all are entitled to adequate representation regardless of guilt.

If the defendant pleads "not guilty," he is entitled to a trial by jury. He must be given sufficient time to consult with his attorney and to prepare his defense. The law requires the State to inform the defendant of all the witnesses that will be called to testify against him, and to give him any other information he may need for his defense. The court will, at the defendant's request, compel the attendance of any witnesses he desires to testify on his behalf.

At the trial the defendant cannot be forced to testify. If he refuses to take the stand in his own defense, neither the judge nor the jury are to consider that as evidence of guilt. He has a right to be considered innocent of the crime charged until the State proves beyond a reasonable doubt that he is guilty.

Due Process of Law
The deliberate, technical and orderly processes of our criminal laws and of our rights after arrest, act as a restraint upon those excitable persons who, in cases of brutal or unusual crimes, would resort to lawless mob action or summary condemnation to vent their revenge upon the man who stands accused.

Our rights after arrest are an integral part of the American system of jurisprudence which is designed to protect human dignity and to punish only after a fair and impartial hearing. This system will remain workable only so long as we citizens take an active and sincere interest in its enforcement.

This column is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law. (The Illinois State Bar Association, 424 South Second Street, Springfield, Illinois, has published a pamphlet entitled "Your Rights If Arrested?" which will be sent free to any person who requests it.)

The Chicago Motor Club urges that motorists respect the cleanliness of our roads and streets by refraining from throwing litter from moving cars. Carelessly thrown litter not only mars the beauty of the countryside, but also adds to the cost of highway maintenance.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By
CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

Summer driving takes all of a motorist's attention and skill to get through his hours behind the wheel safely. He faces competition for space on extremely crowded roads; and the danger of cars driven at higher speeds than usual because the weather is fine and the roads are dry.

Some drivers relax behind the wheel in summer and let their attention stray to the passing countryside. They allow their minds to be preoccupied with other problems, then suddenly realize where they are as they "come to" behind the wheel of a car on a crowded highway. During the vacation season they feel they should be able to take it easy. But it can't be done on the road. This is a hard and fast rule.

Remember, a motorist must always be ready to adapt his driving to the possibility of changing conditions in the weather, road, or the time of day. He must leave enough space between himself and the car ahead to be able to maneuver in an emergency, or in case of a sudden stop ahead.

So take your time driving this summer, be a little late getting there, and drive safely, no matter what the conditions you face.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

Tips for Cultivating Next Year's Spring Lawn

There's no need to wait until spring to get a new lawn started. In fact, late summer and early fall—until mid-September—is the best time to see new lawns. Fall rains produce optimum soil conditions for getting lawns started.

Getting a good seedbed means having a fine shallow layer of surface soil free from hollows, with a firm but not compact soil immediately beneath it.

Fertilizer is needed before sowing the grass seed. How much you add depends on the fertility of the soil and the type of organic matter mixed in.

When sowing the seed, mark the lawn off in narrow strips and distribute the seed uniformly in each strip. The soil should be moist but not wet.

Next rake or brush in the seed unless it has been planted in dry soil just before a rain is expected. Rolling the soil with a medium weight roller right after seeding is recommended. This usually helps germination. On slopes likely to wash, spread a coarse burlap over the area and fasten with stakes.

As soon as the new grass starts to show, you'll need to water it if the soil surface shows signs of drying out. A new lawn must have plenty of water for a good start.

Good stands of grass are sometimes ruined by not mowing soon enough. Mow the new grass when it is two inches high and keep your mower set at the two inch level. Closer cutting will hurt the grass.

Common Kentucky bluegrass is a good choice for a new lawn. Merion bluegrass is another good choice although it is a heavy feeder and will have to be fertilized twice a year. It provides an excellent turf but you might not want to bother with fertilizing the lawn twice a year. Park is another fast germinating, good type of bluegrass.

If you buy a grass seed mix, you buy one that contains at least 60 to 70 percent bluegrass. Don't buy a grass mix that contains Kentucky fescue or Kentucky 31 fescue or tall fescue or Alta fescue. These will persist in the lawn as weeds. The same holds for perennial ryegrass. They are normally called nurse crops, but they will later give you a coarse looking lawn.

If your lawn is in heavy shade or on light soil you may want to add one of the red fescues to the mix.

Seed about two or three pounds of bluegrass per one thousand square feet. Increase this seeding rate slightly if you are planting fescue along with the bluegrass.

David Lawrence writes, in U. S. News and World Report: "If the Soviet Premier does miscalculate the resourcefulness and determination of the free West, he should not fail to take into account the basic antipathy toward war which the Russian people feel today. No dictator in Russia can count on historic 'patriotism' to protect him and his folly. For the Russian people, even in the midst of World War II, rebelled and made a separate peace with the enemy. As we trace the Khrushchev policies to the consequences that will inevitably follow any of his miscalculations, the West today has but one course to pursue. It is to prepare for war and to do so with a sincere hope and prayer that a conflict will be averted."

CLOSE-ROW CORN PLANTING SUCCESS DEPENDS ON SEASON

Success with narrow-row corn planting varies from year to year, according to a report from research workers at the University of Illinois Dixon Spring Experiment Station.

In 1960, corn yields increased nearly 40 per cent when rows were narrowed from 40 to 20 inches. Corn planted in 20-inch rows at the rate of 24,000 plants per acre yielded 130 bushels. When planted at a rate of 16,000 plants per acre in a 40-inch row spacing, the corn produced 102 bushels.

In 1959, little or no yield increase occurred with close row planting. Much of the corn fell over, especially with the higher plant populations.

ATHS Team Prepares for McHenry

The Sequoit gridders of Antioch dug their cleats deep into the Antioch High School Football Field last Saturday night, Sept. 9, at 8 p.m., in their first major football scrimmage.

From the offset, Coach Walther, splitting his first-stringers into two squads, had his players apply running attacks against each other. The boys, who apparently have been receiving rough work-outs, moved a bit sluggishly, although this is to be expected at the beginning of the season.

The backfield with fine running backs Partipilo, Henry Fowles and Fitch exhibited dashing spurts of energy and drive, although the boys are light, wiry and vulnerable to injury.

The team's passing offense appeared shallow and most of the time generally ineffective, but since the majority of the plays are geared around the running halfbacks this may not prove to be a winning essential. Coach Walther stated that "our passing attack will be built up around our halfbacks." He further stated, "with great hopes of success, that Partipilo was the 'fastest man on the squad and a terrific open-field runner.' Partipilo set this example at the scrimmage with a good show of running. Walther described Fowles and Fitch as line plungers and also excellent speedsters.

Joe Pleviak, a converted end, will be tossing the pigskin from the quarterback position this year. He was described as a sharply accurate spot-passer by Coach Walther.

Dean Horton, Jr., will also handle the quarterback position for the Sequoits.

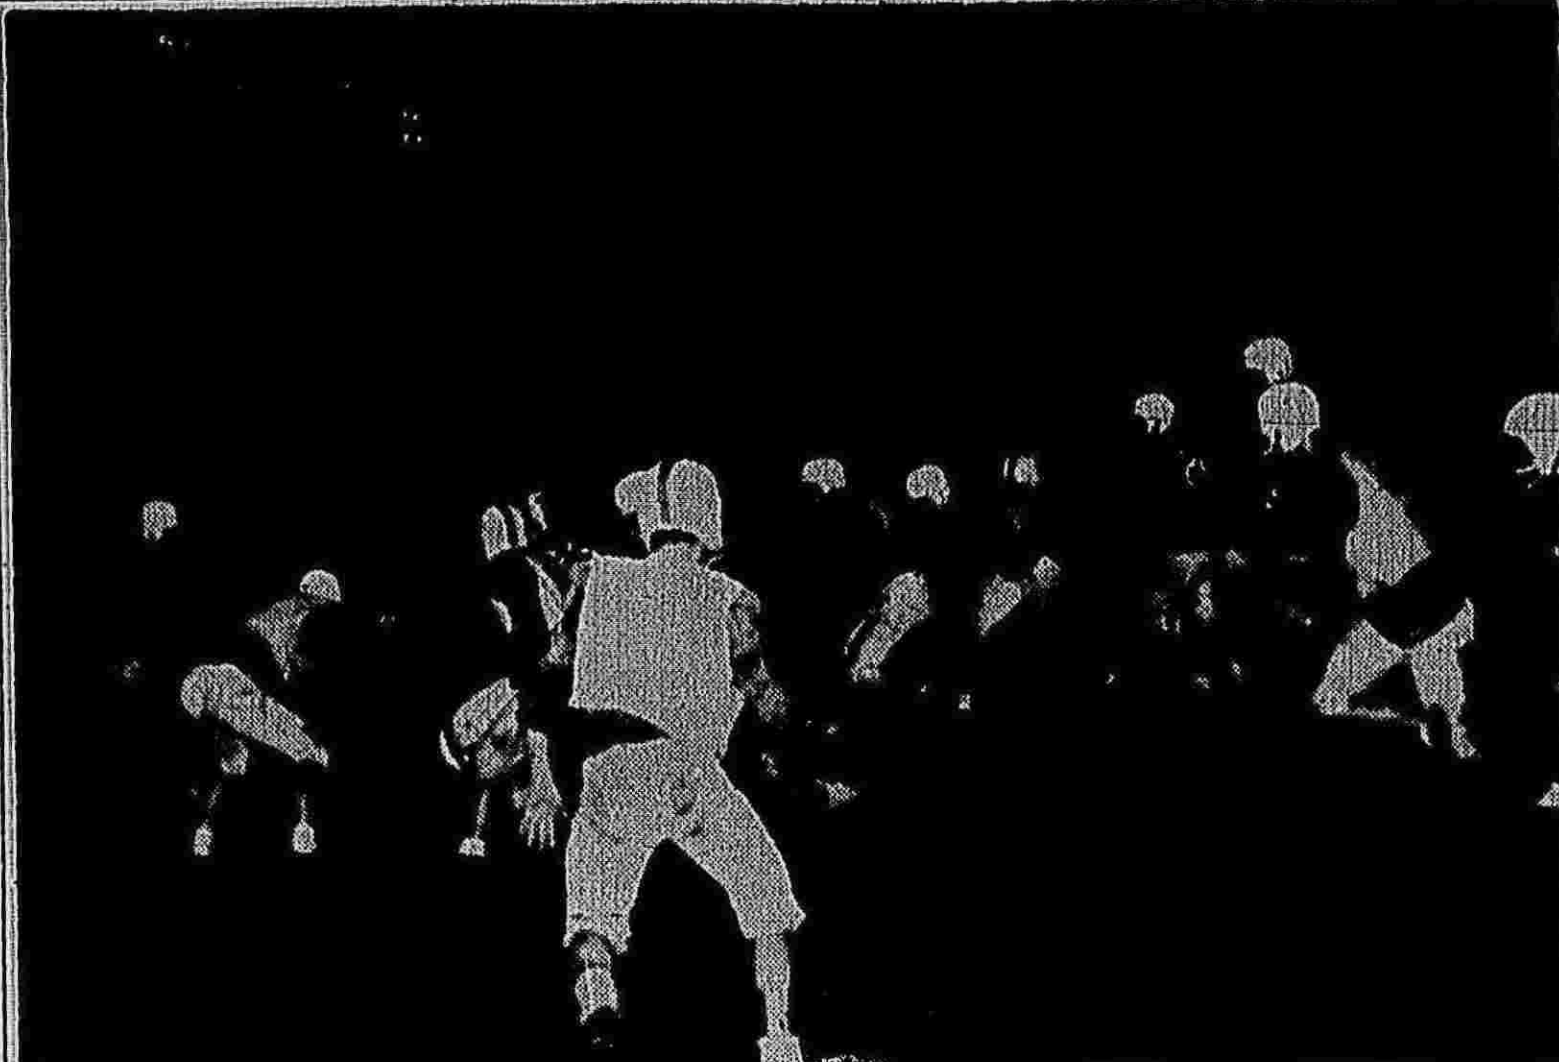

The team will meet McHenry Friday, Sept. 15, at 8 p.m. Concerning the on-coming non-conference game, Coach Walther stated: "McHenry will probably be stronger than us because it is a bigger school. We'll probably be outweighed, too, but I feel that we'll beat them because of our attitude." He also added after the scrimmage, "this team knows that in order to win, they must have hustle and they've started that tonight."

The hopeful squad, weak in depth and requiring balance and experience, may have a fighting chance to battle McHenry down to a tie score, if their half-backs are running true-to-form, their light line holds, and their spirits and determination are kept at peak. Most sportswriters have predicted the Sequoits to lose by at least 6 points but an upset of these figures is quite possible. The team weight average is 165 pounds, and a height of 5'10."

The varsity begins play at McHenry at 8:00 p.m., preceded by the sophomore team at 6:15.

Free Safety Courses In Boating Offered

Sheriff Norris Froelich of Lake County recommended today that boat owners, as well as those interested in boating, take the free U. S. Power Squadron courses in boating safety which will be conducted in this area.

"The northeastern section of Illinois has one of the highest concentration of boaters in the country, and we believe, the greatest in the state. Our waters are used, not only by our own residents, but by many additional thousands from the Chicago area and other parts of the state," said Sheriff Froelich.

"In order to keep the lakes and rivers safe and more enjoyable for boaters, it is essential that they know and practice the basic principles of safe boat handling. The legal requirements for both boats and boaters should also be known and understood."

"We, at the Sheriff's office, have endeavored, this summer, to instruct and aid boaters. By necessity, however, our facilities along these lines are limited. We are fortunate to have in our area the Waukegan Power Squadron which will conduct free classes in small boat handling, boating safety and piloting."

"I urge all boaters and those interested in boating to take these courses. It is only through education that boating can be made safe and enjoyable for the entire family." The Waukegan Power Squadron is part of the U. S. Power Squadron, a nationwide organization of some 50,000 members, who are dedicated to the promotion of safety afloat through education.

The Waukegan Power Squadron is offering classes in "Small Boat Handling" at four locations in this area. The classes are free and open to everyone 16 years of age and over. There is no obligation whatsoever to anyone attending. Classes will be held at the Waukegan Yacht Club, Waukegan, starting September 18th; Highland Park at Fort Sheridan Education Center, starting September 25; Glenbrook Community High School, Glenbrook, starting September 28 and Grant Community High School, Fox Lake, starting Oct. 2.

Governor's Cup Regatta Draws 100 Top Powerboats

The boating season's important single event is scheduled for this weekend, Sept. 16 and 17, at Fox Lake. Two full days of exciting powerboat racing will provide thrilling action for the thousands of spectators expected to attend. The Mineola Hotel on the west shore of Fox Lake will be the site of this second annual Illinois Governor's Cup Regatta. Racing will start at 1 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday with a full schedule of events expected to last until late in the afternoon. Speeds up to 100 mph are possible with the inboard classes while the outboards will be running up to 70 mph. The Chain O' Lakes Boat Club will sponsor this regatta with races sanctioned by the American Power Boat Assn.

The Governor's trophy, won by Ed Olson of Garden Grove, Calif., last year, will be presented to the winner of the class with the most points, according to the Zender point system. Over one hundred racing boats are expected to compete for this nationally known award. Drivers and racing craft from California, Michigan, New York and Canada are expected, with possible entries coming from anywhere in the U. S. Many racing fans are anxious to see if the top rated California racing boats can again beat local contenders and return with the trophy for another year.

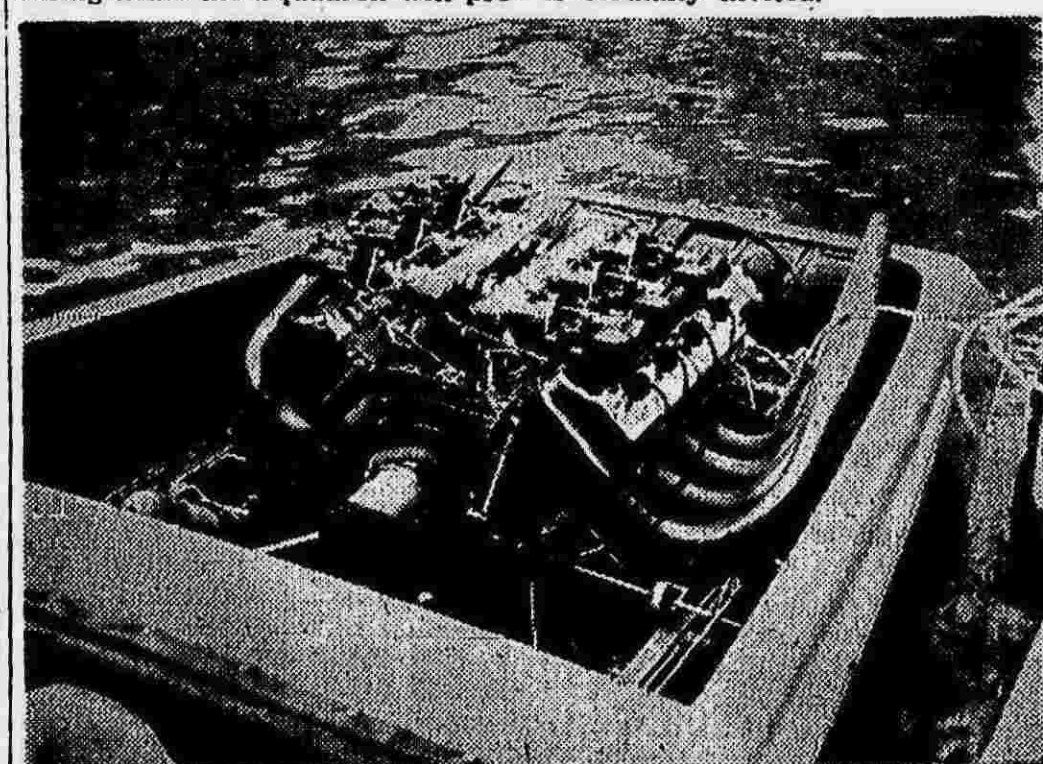

The inboard classes will include the SK racing runabouts, E racing runabout, 135 hydroplanes, 280 hydroplanes and the family runabouts. The outboards include A and B hydros, B utilities, C and D hydros and D utilities. Elimination and first heats of each class will run on Saturday with the second and final heats scheduled for Sunday.

The Waukegan Power Squadron will have facilities set up on the grounds and members available to explain the boating safety classes to be held this fall in various places in the county. On Sunday between racing heats the Squadron will present a safety demonstration on the water.

In conjunction with the races the Chain O' Lakes Boat Club will stage their annual Governor's Pre-Race Dinner-dance at the Mineola Hotel on Saturday evening, Sept. 16 at 7:30. On Sunday after the trophy presentation the Club will also have their annual Governor's Dinner-dance starting at 8 p.m. An orchestra and floor show will be featured at both events and the public is cordially invited.

Fast Wisconsin Drivers Sweep Waukegan Program

Before a large crowd of over 3,000 persons, Miles Mellus, the former midget master from Slinger, Wis., who has been burning up the tracks all over Wisconsin so far this season, took the 25 lap feature victory for the modified stocks at the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night, averaging a near record, 60.88 mph. It was Mellus' first win in his two appearances here.

Wisconsin drivers overshadowed the Illinois competitors in all of the modified events. Mellus took the lead in the main event from Jim Gish of West Allis on the 17th lap and breezed on to victory, finishing about a quarter lap ahead of second place Greg Krieger, from Milwaukee. Gish placed third.

In point standings developments, West Allis driver Bill Strom increased his 10 point lead over fellow townsman Ted Rozinski when the latter failed to earn any points due to a blown engine suffered in a Saturday night race. He did pilot Paul Coen's machine but failed to make the feature and was involved in an accident in the semi event which left him out of the money. Strom now has 2385 points, and leads second place by 65 points. John Reimer who had been in fourth spot, moved into second, surpassing both Rozinski and third place Jack Frost and now has 2320 points. Frost still maintains his third spot with 2305 points, while Rozinski has dropped to fourth with 2280. Krieger remains in fifth spot with 2180 points.

Fran Seamars, Milwaukee, took the top honors in the 15 lap semi-feature as he bested Grayslake driver Jack Radtke by a car's length, to average 48.81 mph.

A new track record was established during qualifying runs, when Milwaukeean Ken Tlougan, turned a time of 16.40 seconds for the one lap trip, averaging 54.88 mph. The record is expected to be long standing in the record books as was the former, set by Mellus at an elapsed time of 16:50 seconds or 54.55 mph on July 19, 1959.

Two flips highlighted the evening's action. Pete Wenzel of Wilmette took a hard bounce and landed on his roof in the first sportsmen heat of the evening and Waukegan's Sandy DeMarr, winner of the last Powder-Puff Derby staged here a few weeks back, came back for more action Sunday, but ended up tipping over after running off the track and onto part of the infield. Neither was injured.

Several spins and collisions occurred in all events, and especially in the amateur-sportsmen feature 12 lap event, which started 27 of the stritely stockers and finished with only 10. The event was so mixed up and confused that the judges even had a hard time determining the winner. Gene Southern, Waukegan, was leading nearly the entire distance and was lapping over half the field when his engine caught fire and he pulled into the infield. Gary Helberg of Kenosha, went on to take the win, averaging 39.89 mph.

Mellus set another near record pace in the 10 lap heat event, after battling off local favorite Jack Frost for several laps, before taking the lead and eventual win on the eighth lap. Frost did a fine job of holding him off until the later stages when Mellus finally sneaked past. Frost pilots the machine Mellus drove to his 1960 championship. standings.
